

ROFRANO'S JURY VISITS SCENE OF GAIMARI MURDER

Judge and Lawyers Go Along to Visit Places Mentioned in Testimony.

DEFENSE BUILDS ALIBI.

Rofrano Says Rival Told Him He Was Afraid to Oppose Foley.

In order that the jury in the case of Michael Rofrano, former Deputy Street Cleaning Commissioner, on trial for instigating the murder of "Mike" Gaimari, might be fully informed as to buildings and locations that have been mentioned or described in the proceedings, the trial was transferred for nearly an hour to-day from the Criminal Courts Building to the Second Assembly District.

Escorted by Justice Weeks and attended by Assistant District Attorneys Dooling and Brothers and Martin W. Littleton, Rofrano's counsel, and surrounded by a guard of court officers and policemen, the jurors walked over the district adjacent to the Manhattan end of the Brooklyn Bridge in which, it is alleged by the prosecution, the Gaimari murder plot was hatched and executed.

The jurors were taken to the north end of the Municipal Building in a bus. Their particular concern was to establish to their own satisfaction disputed points as to whether certain witnesses were physically able to see things they described. Louis Mira, the only corroborating witness who is not a conspirator, testified to seeing Rofrano and Montemagno, Gaimari's lawyer, and others together at Park Row and North William Street and on the Brooklyn Bridge Plaza, and to seeing Rofrano cross Park Row after the meeting and descend the stairs to the subway under the Municipal Building.

From the bridge the party retraced the way up Park Row to North William Street and walked down North William Street to the bridge and back again to the Park Row corner, for this is an important corner in Mira's testimony. Then the route led down Chambers Street to Rose Street, thence to Chestnut and Madison Street, where Gaimari was shot down and along Chestnut Street to New Chambers Street and New Bowers, following the route taken by Montemagno as he ran away. The bus was in waiting at Madison Street and New Bowers and Judge, jurors and lawyers were friendly in 1913. Did Gaimari come to your house that fall? A. Fatima, my election district captain, said Mike Gaimari wanted to see me. It was two days before Labor Day.

Q. Did Gaimari come to your house in consequence? A. He did and stayed for three days talking over the district. He told me he was with me in the spirit if not physically in the fight in the district. He said I must not regard him as an enemy.

He said conditions were such that if he displayed the slightest opposition to Tom Foley or a friendliness to those opposed to Foley his place would be closed up at once by the police. He went so far as to say the police would raid his place within an hour if they knew I had been talking with him.

Q. Was anything said regarding your future relations? A. Yes, I advised him that it would be dangerous to his business interests to be seen with me in the future. He answered yes, and he was glad I realized it because afterward, if I seemed to pass him coldly on the street it was for the reason there were persons around spying who might make a report of it to the Foley people.

Rofrano told of going to Albany Jan. 4, 1915, to keep an appointment with Public Service Commissioner William Hayward, then legal adviser of the Governor. The visit had to do with an effort by Rofrano to land a state job for Dr. Pisano, president of the Italian Club. He had dinner that evening, he said, with Maurice Connolly, President of Queens at the Ten Eyck Hotel. The state has tried to prove Rofrano, at his office in the Municipal Building, had three telephone messages from Rocco Carnivale in Brooklyn discussing the "removal" of Gaimari.

Q. Did you have a talk with Tony Fenimore, Franks' brother? A. Yes. He said "Frank didn't like his lawyer." "Rofrano," he said, "you have got to keep Frank. They are not after Frank they are after you." "Frank will implicate you they will let you off. He wants Martin T. Mantion who defended our brother Nick for murder."

Q. What did you say? A. Why don't you get Mantion. He said he had no money.

Q. Up to the time you heard Fenimore had pleaded guilty you had heard nothing except that the murder was to be framed on you? A. No.

Problems for Voters to Solve at the Polls Are Here Explained.

The New York City voter will be confronted this year with a new form of ballot which is bound to perplex him and will undoubtedly, because of its complications, nullify numerous well intentioned votes. There will be two ballots—one for the Presidential Electors and one for the candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, United States Representatives and Senators, State Senators and Assemblymen, Judges and other officials. The Evening World reproduces them herewith.

The main ballot is 21 inches wide by 14 inches deep and holds seventeen separate groups or blocks of candidates. The names of the candidates for Governor appear in the upper left hand corner and those of the candidates for Assembly in the lower right hand corner. Each candidate in each group has a line, and along that line are the emblems of the various parties endorsing him.

In voting the Presidential ballot, the voter may signify his intention of voting for Wilson, for instance, by putting a cross in the circle under the star. This signifies that the voter casts a ballot for all the Electors in that column. To vote for the electors of the United States, the voter may put a cross in the circle under the eagle, and so on. But the procedure on the other ballot is entirely different.

There are no emblems, it will be noted, across the top of the ballot and no circles. Each candidate must be voted for separately. A city voter expressing a preference for all the candidates will have to make seven different crosses in as many different squares adjoining the party emblem of which is the case; the American Party, the emblem of which is the liberty bell, and the Progressive Party, the emblem of which is the head of a moose. Consequently there are four emblems and four squares on the line to the left of his name.

But the voter wishing to vote for Gov. Whitman must place the cross in only one of these squares. The Republican should make his mark in the square alongside the eagle, the Progressive in the square alongside the moose head and the Independent Leaguer and American Party men alongside the emblems of those parties.

As for Judge Seabury, he is not endorsed by any outside party and the only space requiring a cross in his case is that opposite the star. Voters should pay particular attention to the fact that the squares for voting appear alongside each of the candidates ONLY in the case of the Governor and Assemblymen. The reason for this is that a record must be kept of the number of voters in each political party in order to establish that party's standing in the primaries. A party polling less than 10,000 votes loses its right to nominate candidates in the primary.

The Governor is elected every two years and the Assembly every year, and the party vote for the candidates for these two offices will establish a check.

Make only ONE cross in voting for the Governor and ONE cross in voting for your choice for Assemblyman, regardless of the number of emblems strung along the line.

Tammany Hall leaders, learning of her plight, promptly ordered a special car attached to one of their trains, and the little ones traveled to Shadow Lawn in triumph.

SCHOOL TEACHERS CARRY A STRIKING BANNER.

The women school teachers carried the most striking banner that accompanied the pilgrimage. It bore the inscription:

"We are for Woodrow Wilson because he stands for Social Justice."

The Woodrow Wilson Professional Baseball Players' Club had a special car. The delegation was led by Hans Lobert, Jake Dauber, Grover Cleveland Hartley and George J. Burns. Among other delegations carrying banners and occupying special cars were the Wilson and Marshall Campaign Club of Long Island City, led by James P. Gorman, and the Bronx County Young Men's Democratic League, led by Theodore Mannheim.

After the first Kings County delegation got away from Jersey City on a nine-car train the railroad officials found an immense overflow on the platform with crowds coming up out of the Hudson tubes every minute. It became necessary to put on two more trains, one for the Kings County overflow and one for the delegation of 70 from Hudson County. The Brooklyn delegation had two bands.

HERE IS T. R.'S LATEST ON RETURN FROM WEST

"President Wilson, Daniels and Barker Should Be Wearing Spiritual Pigtails," He Declares.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt returned from the West to-day, where he has been making campaign speeches for the Republican candidate. He reached the Grand Central Station at 8 o'clock and immediately went to the Hotel Langdon.

The Colonel expressed himself as confident that the situation in the West has improved from the Republican standpoint, and he believes that Illinois, with its big women vote, will be in the Republican column. He declined to make any prediction as to the result of the election or to juggle with figures.

He was asked if he cared to comment on Secretary Baker and he replied: "Secretary Baker is an amiable gentleman who has pleasant dreams. I believe that President Wilson, Secretary Daniels and Secretary Barker should be wearing spiritual pigtails."

Col. Roosevelt will speak this evening in the Brooklyn Academy of Music.

HUGHES WOMEN RETURNING.

QUINCY, Ill., Oct. 28.—The Hughes women's special, headed East reached here at 8 A. M. and after a two-hour stop left for Galesburg. At Peoria and Bloomington other stops will be made and the women will reach Springfield at 10 P. M.

The women were still excited over their short stay in Kansas City. To-been were sent out to protect them from hecklers who stripped the cars of banners and fought with crowds of Republican women who were there to greet the women. One policeman drew a revolver to frighten the hecklers away.

SENTENCE IN $20,000 THEFT.

Restaurant Supplied by Staff Purloined From Park & Tiford.

Henry L. Levy, sixty-seven years old, a restaurant keeper at No. 3 West Seventeenth Street, was sentenced to the penitentiary to-day by Judge Delany. Levy had been convicted of receiving $20,000 worth of groceries stolen from Park & Tiford.

He had an arrangement with a Park & Tiford salesman whereby in exchange for the latter's meals in the restaurant a few dollars weekly the salesman supplied the restaurant with groceries. This went on for four years, it was shown.

necessary to summon all the special policemen and platform men to duty in the great waiting rooms and piazzas in order to permit of the passage through the crowd of the various organizations. The morning trains for Long Branch and Asbury Park had been heavily loaded with excursionists and the railroad men say they never saw such an outpouring of people for a short trip to hear a candidate make a speech.

MANY FIRST VOTERS IN TAMMANY CROWD.

Tammany made a brave showing. All the veteran leaders were on hand, from Tom Foley and Mike Cosgrove of the east side to Charlie Calkin and Jimmie Hagan of the west side. Jimmy Hines of Harlem and Arthur Murphy of the Bronx. The Tammany leaders said that in their delegations they had a great many young men who are casting their first vote this year.

Out in the van of all the Tammany men was the venerable John R. Voorhis, Grand Sachem of the Tammany Society, who is in his eighty-sixth year and wore his pig hat as jauntily as any man in the party. Mr. Voorhis is the spokesman of the Tammany delegation. He made the speech at Shadow Lawn, to which President Wilson replied.

Statements alleging that Tammany was "playing down" in this election were thoroughly refuted by the pilgrimage. The number of organization men in the delegation was twice what the most sanguine of the leadership had expected. All the old war horses were on hand, but there was an unusual sprinkling of young men who have never before taken part in any strictly Tammany celebration.

The women had a train all to themselves. One car was given over to women and children of the factories and sweatshops who went to Shadow Lawn to thank President Wilson for the Eight-Hour Law and the Child Labor Law.

MRS. HARRIMAN LEADS WOMEN WORKERS.

Mrs. J. Borden Harriman led a delegation of Democratic women workers for Wilson from the five boroughs of the greater city. There were also many women who are taking an interest in the national campaign in Westchester and Dutchess Counties and out on Long Island.

Grace Strachan led a delegation of Democratic women teachers. The social workers were led by Mrs. Frederick Nathan and the housewives by Mrs. Harry Hastings. The Women's Democratic County Committee of New York and Teachers' College, Columbia University, contributed 30 women. Other leaders in the women's delegation were Mrs. Jessie Drew Heale, Mrs. Thomas A. Edison and Mrs. Cecilia Gaffney.

Mrs. Grace M. Baxter brought twenty-five little boys and twenty-five little girls over from Long Island City. The boys wore red carnations, and the girls white carnations. Although Mrs. Baxter had purchased tickets for her juvenile delegation, she found there was no room for them on the train this was about to leave as she reached the station.

As for Judge Seabury, he is not endorsed by any outside party and the only space requiring a cross in his case is that opposite the star. Voters should pay particular attention to the fact that the squares for voting appear alongside each of the candidates ONLY in the case of the Governor and Assemblymen. GERMANS KEEP UP RAIDS ON SHIPPING OF NORWEGIANS

Reports From Christiania, Via London, Say 9 Vessels Have Been Sunk in 24 Hours.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Norwegian steamer Bygdo has been sunk off Christiania, Norway. Her crew has been landed, says a Lloyd's Agency despatch. The same agency reports that the British steam trawler Fuchsia has been sunk and her crew imprisoned in Germany.

The Norwegian steamer Fritzko, while bound from Larvik, Norway, to London with a cargo of boards, has been taken to Cuxhaven.

A Christiania despatch says nine Norwegian vessels have been sunk by German submarines within 24 hours in the campaign directed against Norwegian shipping as a protest against Norway's refusing submarines admission to her waters.

The Christiania newspapers are urging the Government to stand firm and not to be cowed by German threats. "The deliberate murder of so many Norwegian sailors inevitably makes bad blood between the two nations and it will be a long time before they are forgotten in Norway," says the Verdens Gang. "The brutal deeds of German submarines, however, have not caused any hysterics among Norwegian shipowners. Trade and commerce go on as usual and there is no symptom of any nervousness in the Bourse." The Norwegian Government is confident that the nation was strictly within its rights according to international law.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 28.—Three German submarines are guarding the entrance to the Christiania fjord and the Norwegian naval authorities have warned all ships against leaving the fjord, said Christiania advices to-day.

Alarming rumors were in circulation here to-day about sharp slumps on the Christiania Exchange as a result of the dispute with Germany. One rumor said shipping shares dropped 40 points.

69TH OPENS FAIR TO-NIGHT.

Big Benefit Bazaar Will Be Held at Regiment's Armory.

The Sixty-ninth Regiment bazaar will open to-night in the armory on Lexington Avenue and Twenty-fifth Street and will continue two weeks including Sunday. More than 100 booths have been set up in the drill hall and the blaze of lights, with the unusual number of pretty girls, will transform the drill hall into fairyland. The Sixty-ninth band will furnish music and there will be dancing.

Cardinal Farley, or a representative of His Eminence, will open the bazaar, assisted by Justice Victor J. Dowling. The affair is under the auspices of the depot battalion of the regiment and the proceeds will establish a fund to provide for the necessities of the families or other dependents of the boys now down at the border. The exercises to-night will be opened with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by Mme. Pauline Bonaldi.

AUSTRO-GERMANS HIT ROUMANIAN MORE HARD BLOWS

Launch Violent Attacks Near Junction of Roumanian, Transylvania and Bukovina Borders.

MACKENSEN DRIVES ON.

Still Pursuing the Retreating Foe in Northern Dobruja, Berlin Reports.

PETROGRAD, Oct. 28 (via London).—Austro-German forces launched a series of violent attacks against the Russian and Roumanian positions on both banks of the River Bystritsa in the region of Dorna Watra yesterday, says the official statement issued to-day by the Russian War Office, compelling the Russian advanced posts to abandon two heights.

BERLIN, Oct. 28 (By wireless to Sayville).—Teuton-Bulgarian-Turkish forces, under command of Field Marshal von Mackensen, continue their pursuit of the Russian and Roumanian armies in northern Dobruja, says the official statement issued at German Army Headquarters to-day. The forces of the Central Powers and their allies are meeting with little resistance, it is declared. Five hundred isolated soldiers have been taken prisoner and several munition columns and other war material have been captured.

Teutonic troops have won a victory in the Dorna Watra region, near the junction of the frontiers of Roumania, Transylvania and Bukovina, according to to-day's War Office announcement. Austro-Hungarian forces captured several heights from the Russian line at the point of the bayonet and took more than 500 prisoners.

On the northern frontier of Roumania, Austro-German forces captured from the Roumanians a height in the region south of Kronstadt and extended their advance into the Partzuga Valley.

SOFIA, Oct. 28.—Bulgarian troops have occupied the Danube town of Herova, twenty-five miles northwest of Cernavoda, in their pursuit of the Russian army. It was officially announced to-day.

BUCHAREST, Oct. 28.—The Roumanian war office announces that Earl of the Alt Valley attacks were repulsed in the Alt Valley, the Austro-German forces which had advanced to the west were completely defeated, leaving 1,000 dead on the battlefield, besides 15 machine guns, 100 prisoners and 15 machine guns.

The Austro-German right wing in the region of Dragoslavele northeast of Cernavoda, was repulsed by a Roumanian counter-attack, losing five machine guns, two trench mortars, besides 300 men and prisoners.

RUSSIANS FAIL IN NEW OFFENSIVE, BERLIN CLAIMS

Attacks in Volhynia Repulsed With Heavy Loss, Says Berlin War Office.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—"A telegram received in Rome from German source reports there are indications of the beginning of a tremendous new Russian offensive in Galicia and Poland," says a despatch from the Italian capital received by the Wireless Press.

BERLIN, Oct. 28 (by wireless to Sayville).—The Russians have renewed their attacks on the Austro-German line west of Lutsk in Volhynia, the War Office announced to-day, delivering an assault yesterday after a 3 days' artillery preparation in the vicinity of Zbarazh. The attack failed, according to the official statement, which follows:

"Front of Prince Leopold.—The Russians, on two days' artillery preparation in the sector west of Lutsk, attacked yesterday near Zaturze. The attack failed completely with heavy losses to the enemy."

WAR BURDEN OF FOES BIGGER THAN GERMANY'S

Secretary of the Treasury Says It Has Reached 2,187,000,000 Marks a Month.

BERLIN, Oct. 28 (by wireless to Sayville).—Count von Roeder, Secretary of the Imperial Treasury, in his speech before the Reichstag yesterday when he asked the members to vote a new war credit of 12,000,000,000 marks, said it was evident up to the present that Germany's financial burden, compared with her efforts and results, were lighter than those of her adversaries.

After stating that the monthly German expenditure had reached 2,187,000,000 marks, he said Germany had extended her front into Transylvania and Dobruja, Count von Roeder said:

"To this sum there must be added in the present month 250,000,000 marks, which amount is to be repaid to Federal States or townships for relief advanced to families."

Part of the money invested in industries making war material, the Secretary said, will either be repaid or employed usefully in time of peace.

KING GEORGE GIVES HONOR TO THE "MAN WHO CAME BACK"

"D. S. O." Medal Awarded for "Gallant Conduct" to Man Once Dropped From Army.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—King George has appointed Lieut. Col. John Ford Elkington a Companion of the Distinguished Service Order. This is the next highest to the Victoria Cross.

Lieut. Col. Elkington is known as the "man who came back." He was dismissed by a court-martial from the British army after serving nearly thirty years just as his regiment was going into action in France in the latter part of 1914. He had been a member of the Warwickshire and had won the Queen Victoria Medal for valor in South Africa.

On being dismissed from his regiment Lieut. Col. Elkington sought refuge in the French Foreign Legion and fought in several battles against the Germans on the French front. Recently he returned to England, having won in the Foreign Legion two French military honors, the military medal and the military cross. On his arrival in England a proclamation appeared in the London Gazette announcing that the King had "graciously approved the reinstatement of John Ford Elkington in the rank of Lieutenant Colonel with his previous seniority in consequence of his gallant conduct while serving in the ranks of the Foreign Legion of the French army."

Elkington recently was severely wounded in the leg.

MRS. SANGER AND HER AID ARE RELEASED IN BAIL

Her Sister and Emma Goldman, Other Birth Control Advocates, Also Provided Bonds.

Mrs. Margaret Sanger, former chief birth control advocate, and her young assistant, Miss Kindell, who were arrested Thursday at No. 46 Amboy Street, Brooklyn, were released last night by Magistrate Voorhes in Night Court in $100 bail each. They released in the morning, said they would not accept bail if friends offered it. Deputy Warden Du an of the State Prison said they had been on a hunger strike, said each had eaten prison fare.

Mrs. Emma Goldman, a trained nurse and assistant to Mrs. Sanger in the first established birth control clinic, who was arraigned in the Brooklyn court yesterday morning, said she had no notion of suffering martyrdom. She was arrested in Manhattan Tuesday night. She readily accepted bail offered $100. Mrs. Byrne is a sister of Mrs. Sanger. She said "My friends are sending me pamphlets on birth control. Magistrate Harlow held her in $1,000 bail, which was provided."

Mrs. Sanger before her departure from Night Court last night denied she had ever offered medicine for sale to the women who came to her Brooklyn clinic.
